States Dollars (US$50,000.00) in the case of a political party, alliance or coalition; or not more than Five Hundred United States Dollars (US$500.00) in the case of a natural person.

The following subsection 2.9(y) is added after subsection 2.9(x):

(y) To conduct programs to educate the citizens of Liberia about elections and referenda and their democratic rights related to them; and to inform them about voter registration events and election and referendum events.

Sub-Chapter A: Duties of the Chairman and Co-Chairman

Section 2.10 Chairman (c) which reads:

For the purpose of expediting the hearing and determination of all election offenses; and other business of the Commission shall apportion the Republic into five (5) administrative areas and assign a commissioner to an area who shall, in consultation with the Commissioner en banc, direct and supervise all election activities in his area of assignment including the hearing and determination of election offenses arising therefrom which determination having been previously approved by the Commission shall be final.

Is hereby amended as follows:

(c) The Chairman shall apportion the Republic into administrative areas and assign a Commissioner to each area to oversee election activities in the area and advise the Commission on all decisions related to the area, provided however that a Commissioner shall not be assigned to his or her area of origin.

Section 2.12 Legal Section which reads:

There shall be established in the office of the Commission, a Legal Section which shall be the legal arm of the Commission.

Is hereby amended as follows:

Section 2.12: Legal staff

The Commissioner shall appoint Legal Counsels and Research Officers of the Legal Section by an open and transparent selection process.

Is hereby amended as follows:

(c) Production of an original or certified copy of a certificate of naturalization;

The last paragraph of Section 3.1 which reads:

Every voter shall be allowed to vote only in the voting precinct of the electoral district for which he/she is registered.

Is hereby amended as follows:

A person must register to vote at a voter registration center established by the NEC for the place where he or she ordinarily resides and must vote at the polling place established by the NEC for voters registered at that center.

There is added a Sub-Chapter 3.1 A

3.1 A Voter Registration and Voter Updates

(1) The Commission shall carry out voter registration for eligible citizens.

(2) The Commission shall carry out voter registration update periodically.

There is added a Sub-Chapter 3.1 A as follows:

SUB-CHAPTER 3A CANDIDATES

Section 3 A. 1: Qualification of Candidates

A person qualified to be registered to vote may be a candidate in an election for all elected offices if he/she is:

domiciled in the constituency for which he or she will be a candidate for at least one year, that is to say twelve (12) months prior to the Election day, and is a regular taxpayer.
CHAPTER 4: CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

Section 4.1(2): Voting Precincts: which reads:

The number of registered voters in every precinct shall be approximately equal, and unless the Commission in any particular case so determines, the number of registered voters in any precinct shall not exceed two thousand (2000).

Is hereby amended as follows and to include subsection three (3):

(2) The number of registered voters in every precinct shall be approximately equal, and unless the Commission in any particular case so determines, the number of registered voters in any precinct shall not exceed three thousand (3000).

(3) No change in the definition of a constituency or a voting precinct shall apply to an election if the election day is less than 12 months after the day the change is published, unless the Commission announces, at least 120 days before the election day, that all necessary preparations can be made to allow the changes to apply to the election.

Subsection 4.2(1) (a) which reads:

The Commission shall designate Polling Places in each constituency to serve the voting precincts. A change of Polling Place after due designation, may be made by the Commission on giving at least forty-eight (48) hours notice to the voters affected thereby.

Is hereby amended as follows:

The Commission shall determine and publish the location of Polling Places to serve the voting precincts. The location of a Polling Place may be changed by the Commission if it determines that it is necessary. The Commission shall post signs showing the new location at least a week before the start of polling, unless the change is caused by an emergency in which case signs for the new location shall be posted as soon as possible.

Section 4.5 (1) is amended by adding the following subsections (1a); (1b); and (1c) after subsection (1):

(1a) The list of candidates sent by a political party to the Commission for an election must include a candidate for at least half of all the constituencies in the election.

(1b) A political party or coalition in its submission to the commission, of its list of candidates for an election should endeavor to ensure that the governing body and its list of candidates has no less than 30% of its members from each gender.

(1c) A list of candidates submitted to the Commission for an election should endeavor to have no less than 30% of the candidates on the list from each gender.
Paragraph 4.5(3): which reads:

The list shall be received by the Commission not later than eight (8) weeks before the election. Is hereby amended as follows:

4.5(3) The list of candidates shall be received by the Commission no later than ninety (90) days before the election day.

Chapter 4 subsection 4.7 is hereby amended by adding, Section 4.7 A and Section 4.7 B as follows:

Section 4.7 A: Period of Permissible Withdrawal

(1) A candidate may withdraw from contesting an election by giving a written notice to the Commission no later than seven (7) days after the last day for receiving nominations under section 4.5, and a withdrawal notice after this date is void.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the second round of a presidential election.

Section 4.7B: Death of a Candidate

(1) If a candidate nominated by a political party dies before the last date that withdrawals are permitted, the party may give the Commission written notice of a substitute candidate to be entered on the ballot, with all information required by the Commission, not later than seven (7) days after the death.

(2) In an election for President, if a candidate nominated by a political party dies between the close of the first round of voting and the announcement of final results, and is either the one who wins the election in the first round or is a candidate in the second round, the election shall be held again, at the earliest date practicable, as determined by the Commission, and the Commission shall allow seven (7) days for the party whose candidate died to nominate another candidate.

Section 4.10 is amended by renumbering it as 4.10(1) and adding thereafter subsections (2) and (3) as follows:

(2) No one other than the elections officers, the party representatives appointed under paragraph (1) of section 4.9 and accredited by the NEC, the elections observers, police officers or other persons accredited or authorized by the NEC, and voters voting or about to vote shall be permitted to enter in a polling place during the polling.

(3) During the polling and counting, a representative of a party or candidate shall not interfere with or delay the presiding officer or other officials in their duties nor insist that they follow a request made by the representative. A representative who is not satisfied may make a written complaint under section 5.9.
Section 4.11 At the Opening of the Polls which reads:

At the opening of the polls, the ballot box shall be opened and presented to the public including representatives of political parties and/or independent candidates for inspection. After it has been confirmed that the box is completely empty, it will be locked and disposed in opened view of the public. The serial number of any ballots issued shall be recorded by the clerk on the Tally sheet.

Is hereby amended as follows:

At the opening of the polls, the ballot box shall be opened and shown to all voters, representatives of political parties or independent candidates and election observers who are present in the polling station. After it has been confirmed that the box is completely empty, it shall be closed, sealed and placed in open view of the voters.

The serial numbers on the seals shall be read and recorded by the presiding officer. Party and candidate’s agents as well as observers may record the serial numbers of the seals.

Section 4.12 At the Close of the Polls which reads:

Following the close of the polls, the NEC Presiding Officer shall in the presence of representatives of parties or candidates appointed under section 4.9 and 4.10:

Is hereby amended as follows:

Following the close of the polls, the Presiding Officer shall, in the presence of all accredited representatives of parties or candidates and all accredited election observers who are present:

Section 4.12: At the Close of the Polls: Sub-sections (b), (c) and (d) read:

(b) Cause the tabulated register to be made in triplicate signed by the NEC Presiding Officer, his clerk, the representatives of political parties and/or independent candidate(s). The original copy shall be inserted into the ballot box, locked and sent to the Commission through the Magistrate of Elections and the third copy shall be kept by the NEC Presiding Officer of the Poll.

(c) Cause the ballots cast to be tabulated with the recorded serial numbers.

(d) All ballot papers cast at the election, shall, other than questioned ballots, placed in the ballot box; and

Are hereby amended as follows:

Paragraph (b) is hereby amended as follows:

(b) cause four (4) copies of the tabulated register to be made and signed by the NEC Presiding Officer, his Clerk, and the representatives of political parties and/or independent candidate(s) present, who wish to sign it. The original tabulated register shall be placed in a tamper evident envelope and sent to the Commission through the Magistrate. The first copy shall be placed in an envelope and inserted in the ballot box; the second copy shall be posted by the NEC Presiding Officer on the wall of the polling center; the third copy shall be given to the candidate with the highest vote, and the fourth copy shall be given to the candidate with the second highest vote;

Paragraph (c) is hereby amended as follows:

(c) Using the form prescribed by the Commission, reconcile the disposition of all ballots by totaling:

i. the number of valid votes for each candidate,

ii. the number of spoiled ballots,

iii. the number of ballots determined to be questioned as invalid or blank, and

iv. the number of unused ballots and verifying that the total equals the number of ballots issued to the polling place;

Paragraph (d) is hereby amended as follows:

(d) place all ballot papers cast at the election in the ballot box; and

Section 4.13 Question Ballots, is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:

(1A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if the voter’s choice of candidate is clear, the ballot shall be counted as a valid vote for that candidate, even if the voter has not made a mark in the box provided, or has not made the correct mark, or there are other marks on the ballot, other than a mark that identifies the voter.

Chapter 4 is amended by adding the following Section.

Section 4.15A: Tied Result

If, after completion of the counting and tabulation and the final determination of all complaints that could affect the result, the votes for the leading candidates in a constituency are equal, the Commission shall order that the voting be repeated for that constituency at a time and on conditions set by the Commission.

Chapter 4 is amended by adding Chapter 4A as follows:

CHAPTER 4A CONDUCT OF REFERENDUM

Section 4A.1: Voters in a Referendum

The voter Registration Roll prepared by the Commission for elections under this law shall be used for referenda.
Section 4A.2: System for Referendum

The provisions of this law relating to voting, challenges, counting, complaints and announcement of results in an election apply to the conduct of a referendum with such changes as are necessary, as provided by the Commission by regulation.

Section 4A.3: Referendum Ballot

The ballot for a question in a referendum shall show the question or proposal to be voted on as set by the Constitution or by law, and may also show a simple explanation of the question or proposal, as determined by the Commission.

Section 4A.4: Referendum Result

The fraction of two thirds (2/3) required for approval of a question in a referendum is calculated by dividing the number of valid votes cast in approval of the question by the total of the valid votes cast on the question.

COMPLAINTS

Chapter 5 is amended by adding thereto sections 5.9, 5.10, 5.11, 5.12, 5.13, 5.14, as follows:

Section 5.9: Right to make a complaint

A voter, candidate or a registered political party may file a complaint with the Commission alleging that an offence against the Constitution or the Elections law or a violation of a regulation issued by the Commission has occurred in connection with the administration of an election, during any stage of the election. A complainant must first exhaust all remedies before the National Elections Commission, and an adverse decision must be made by the Commission, before the complainant may proceed to the Supreme Court.

Section 5.10: Time and place to file a complaint

A complaint must be submitted no later than seven (7) days after the time the offence or violation was witnessed, in writing signed by the witness, accompanied by any evidence the complainant has, and shall be submitted by delivery:

(a) to the Commission at its head office in Monrovia, or

(b) to the office of the Magistrate in the county where the offence or violation is alleged to have occurred, or

(c) on election day, to the presiding officer of the polling place where it is alleged to have occurred.

Section 5.11: Complaint forms

The Commission may provide complaint forms at places convenient to voters, but a complaint in any written form may be submitted if it contains the information required.
Section 5.12: Hearing and Determination of Complaints

(1) The Commission may, by regulation, specify the complaints that must be sent to the Commission for determination and those that may be determined by a Magistrate.

(2) A Magistrate may not determine a complaint against himself or herself, but shall send any such complaint to the Commission.

(3) The Commission may appoint hearing officers to assess, investigate and assist Magistrates to determine complaints, and a chief hearing officer to make an initial determination on complaints to the Commission.

(4) A decision by a Magistrate may be appealed to the Commission, within 48 (forty eight) hours after the posting of the decision by the Magistrate.

(5) A decision by a Chief Hearing Officer may be appealed to the Commission within forty eight (48) hours after the posting of the decision by the Magistrate.

(6) A decision of the Commission on an appeal from the decision of a Magistrate or Chief Hearing Officer may be appealed to the Supreme Court within 48 (forty eight) hours after the posting of the decision.

Section 5.13: Decisions on complaints by the Commission

In hearing an appeal on a complaint, the Commission may do any one or more of the following:

(a) dismiss the complaint;

(b) order that a ballot box be opened and re-counted;

(c) order a re-vote at a polling place or polling station;

(d) refer a complaint to the Minister of Justice for prosecution if it believes that there is credible evidence of a crime, or

(f) order a punishment within the authority of the Commission under this law.

Section 5.14: Subsequent Prosecution

A determination by a Magistrate or the Commission that a person has committed an offence or violation and the imposition of a sanction does not bar a prosecution against that person for a crime based on the same facts.
Chapter 5 is amended by adding Chapter 5A, as follows:

CHAPTER 5A: REVIEW OF PARTY RESULTS

Section 5A.1: A Political Party or Independent Candidate shall be suspended if the candidate(s) nominated in an election for the Presidency or a seat in the Legislature receives insufficient support in that election thereby resulting into:

(a) none of the party's candidates is elected, and

(b) the total of all valid votes cast for the candidates nominated by the party is less than two percent (2%) of the total of all valid votes cast for all candidates in the constituencies in which the party contested, the Commission shall suspend the party's right to nominate candidates for the next two (2) elections for the same office.

(2) If an independent candidate has contested an election for President or a seat in the Legislature and, in that election

(a) the candidate is not elected, and

(b) the total of all valid votes cast for the candidate is less than two percent (2%) of the total of all valid votes cast for all candidates in the constituency that the candidate contested, the Commission shall suspend the candidate’s right to be a candidate in the next two (2) elections for the same office.

(2) Paragraph 5A (1) does not apply to a political party that, at the time of the election had a member continuing to hold office as President or as a member of the Legislature.

Section 5A.2: Appeal

A decision to suspend the right of a political party or a candidate to contest elections may be appealed to the Supreme Court.

Section 5A.3: De-registration

A political party shall be de-registered only upon the judicial determination of a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with due process of law.

Chapter 7: ELECTION EXPENSES

Is hereby amended as follows:

Chapter 7: ELECTION CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Section 7.2: Remittance of funds from outside Liberia to Political Parties or Independent Candidate: Restriction which reads: There shall be no remittance of funds or other assets to any political party or organization, or an independent candidate from outside Liberia, unless remitted or sent by Liberian Citizens residing abroad. Any funds or other assets received directly or indirectly in contravention of this restriction, shall be turned over or transferred to the Commission within twenty-one (21) days of receipt to be kept in escrow in a designated bank, after thorough investigation has been made, such funds shall be turned over to the political party or organization or independent candidate to whom the money was sent if not, in contravention of this restriction.

Is hereby amended as follows:

1) No person shall contribute funds or other assets to any political party or independent candidate from outside Liberia, unless they are the property of a Liberian citizen who has attained the age of eighteen (18) years.

(2) Funds or other assets that appear to contravene paragraph (1) shall be transferred to the Commission by the party or independent candidate within seven (7) days of receipt to be kept by NEC in escrow.

(3) After investigation, NEC shall return the funds or assets to the party or independent candidate to whom they were, if the contribution was not in contravention of paragraph (1), and if it was in contravention, shall return them to the person who sent them, or deal with them as ordered by a court.

Chapter 7 is hereby amended by adding Sections 7.5, 7.6, 7.7, 7.8, 7.9, 7.10, 7.11, as follows:

Section 7.5: Election Campaign Contributions and Reports

7.5. (1) No artificial person shall contribute more than US$100,000.00 or its equivalent in Liberian Dollars in total to a party and its candidates or to independent candidates for use in an election campaign.
