Public Service Announcement

(Montserrado, August 15, 2017) The National Elections Commission (NEC) announces the Launch of its Civic and Voter Education campaign on Friday August 18 for the October 10, 2017 Presidential and Representative Elections.

The launch will take place concurrently at all 19 magisterial offices throughout the Liberia.

In Monrovia, the commission will hold a parade through the principal streets of Monrovia, commencing from ELWA Junction, Free-port and from the former Ministry of Education on Broad Street to the NEC Headquarters in Sinkor.

The Public is asked to join NEC employees and be part of the CVE activities at the various locations throughout the country.

An indoor program to climax the Launch will be held at the NEC headquarters in the James Fromayan Conference Hall beginning at 12noon. There will be speeches and performances befitting the occasion.
