

Today, Wednesday, 15 May 2024, a 4-person delegation from the International Election Observation group, the Electoral Institute for Sustainable Democracy in Africa (EISA) officially presented its final observation report on the 2023 General Elections in Liberia to authorities of the National Elections Commission (NEC), at the Headquarters of the Commission on 9th Street, in Sinkor. The EISA observation report was presented by its Executive Director, Baidessou Soukologue. The report was received by the Chairperson of NEC-Liberia, Madam Davidetta Browne Lansanah. All members of the Board of Commissioners of NEC were present. Other members of the EISA delegation were Antonetta Hamandishe-Country Representative, Darren L. Domah- Legal Analyst, and George Y. Sharpe-Media Analyst.

EISA Executive Director, Soukologue presents observation report to NEC Chairperson, Madam Lansanah.

(Left to Right) Members of EISA, Media Analyst Sharpe, Legal Analyst, Domah, Country Rep. Hamandishe, and Executive Director, Soukolgue.

NEC-BOC Members and EiSA 4-person delegation after the presentation of the observation report.