

The National Elections Commission (NEC), through its Political Affairs Section has concluded a five-day retreat to finalize and adopt Election Regulations ahead of the 2023 General Elections.

Under the theme, “Finalizing and Ad[opting the Election Regulations, Senior Technicians of the NEC, as we as members of the Board of Commissioners (BOC), attended the retreat in Buchanan City, in Grand Bassa County, from 25 -29 October 2022. The United Nations Development Program (.UNDP), provided technical support.

A Pictorial from the Election Regulations Retreat in Buchanan City.

The EMB Boss addresses the retreat at the opening

Members of the Retreat after the grand opening.

During a power point presentation at the Buchanan Retreat.

Senior NEC Technicians, Emma and Sam watched a power point presentation.