

PRESS STATEMENT: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 27, 2022: The National Elections Commission (NEC) of Liberia says its attention has been drawn to statements, regarding the October 3rd, 2022, complaint filed by Senator Nyonblee Kanga Lawrence and others of the Liberty Party.

The Commission wishes to assure the parties that have submitted issues of concerns before the Commission that these complaints will be addressed in the coming days in line with its mandate.

Consistent with these assurances, the Commission wishes to restate to all stakeholders and parties its mindfulness in relation to CHAPTER TWO, SECTION 2.9 (W) of the New Elections Law, which states “To issue citation for the appearance before it of any political party or its leaders, or other natural persons in connection with any complaint cognizable before it”.

The Commission also takes this time to inform the Rainbow Alliance and the People's Restoration Party, whose respective cases have been pending before the Commission prior to Senator Lawrence's October 3rd complaint, that their matters will also be looked into in the coming week.
